

Artist's Statement

Nolan J. Braud

Looking at the world with impaired vision has always caused me to want to see more of nature's beauty. I find that I am able to do that through the medium of photography. The lovely scenes can be revisited in the portraits I am able to capture, and they can be shared with others. I tend to focus my attention on landscapes and horticulture.